

Horace Mann Elementary Yearbook Committee

Parent and Student Agreement

By signing below, both parent(s)/guardian(s) and student agree to the following terms for participation in the Horace Mann Elementary Yearbook Committee:

1. Commitment to Participation

- We agree to actively participate in the assigned yearbook tasks (e.g., photography, layout, editing, or event coverage).
- We understand that students in grades K-4 are limited to one student per classroom, with the possibility of expansion if additional help is needed. For 5th graders, there will be two students per classroom involved.

2. Attendance at Meetings

- We agree to attend all scheduled in-person or virtual meetings related to the yearbook committee. If unable to attend, we will notify the committee chair in advance and make arrangements to catch up on any missed work.

3. Responsibility and Deadlines

- We commit to meeting all deadlines for submitting photos, editing content, and any other tasks assigned as part of the yearbook production process.
- We will work collaboratively with the committee and ensure that all tasks related to our assigned section are completed in a timely manner.

4. Best Interests of the Yearbook

- We will act in the best interest of the yearbook and the school community by ensuring that all content submitted is appropriate, respectful, and reflective of our school values.

5. Parent Involvement

- Parents/guardians will assist their child with assigned tasks, ensuring that they stay engaged with their responsibilities. Parents agree to support their child's participation and maintain communication with the yearbook committee as needed.
- Parents/guardians will prioritize the positive purpose of this committee, ensuring it upholds its values and benefits the school community.
